

Data and Privacy File Guides

iCloud Mail: MailDrop

April 2019

File name MailDrop.csv

File description This file contains the details of attachments user has sent using Mail Drop.

Why Apple keeps this information Apple retains this information in order to manage the expiration of previously-sent attachments and to support and improve Mail Drop features.

| Field Name             | Details                                                                    |
|------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| uploadDate             | Date on which the user uploaded the Mail Drop attachment                   |
| downloadUrl            | The internet address from which the Mail Drop attachment can be downloaded |
| contentType            | Information about the Mail Drop attachment's nature and format             |
| fileSize               | The Mail Drop attachment's size                                            |
| isDeletedFromAccessing | Whether the user's Mail Drop data container has been deleted               |